Sir:

In a communication with Examiner William Allen and Jim Zurita on September 20, 2006 via telephone, the issues of obviousness type rejections were discussed and the Nardozzi, Blanchard, Lambersten and Masters references were discussed. The Examiner insisted that even though Lambersten and Nardozzi are completely irrelevant art, that amendments would be necessary incorporating some dependent claims into the independent claims would be necessary to overcome the rejections.

No agreement was reached as to the claims, and applicant has already filed an amendment after final.

If any outstanding issues remain, Applicant urges the Patent Office to telephone Applicant's attorney so that the same may be resolved and the application expedited to issue. Applicant requests the Patent Office to indicate all claims as allowable and to pass the application to issue.
